VOL. 9. M'KINNEY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1892. NO 27

E. L. Burton, Jr. M. D. E. L. Burton, Sr., M. D.

Dr's. Burton & Burton, SPECIALISTS

have associated themselves together and limit their practice exclusively to diseases of the EYE, EAR, NOSE, MOUTH and THROAT; DISEASES OF WOMEN, GENITO URINARY, RECTAL DISEASES and SURGERY.

Dr. E. L. Burton, Jr's., practice for the past year in McKinney and surrounding country speaks for itself. He has had unparalled success for which his patients will vouch.

Out of a record of over three hundred surgical operations, minor and major, there has not been a single failure.

The success of all this not only depends on being a skilful operator, but a diagnistician of wonderfully accute perception.

In disease we have a pathological alteration, or such a change as to produce a morbid or abnormal condition of the parts.

The first and most important of all factors in the treatment of disease is proper diagnosis. Next such Therapeutic measures as can be brought to bear that will remove the cause.

I have been offered hundreds of testimonials by former patients cured; but refused to publish any of them for that is not my policy.

We have a Positive Cure for Piles, cured in a few days without pain, or detention from business. No cautery, knife or ligature.

URETHRAL STRICTURE, and all private diseases are treated by the latest and most approved methods, (strictly confidential.)

DISEASES OF WOMEN treated skillfully and successfully by approved methods.

Dr. E. L. Burton, Sr., will give his attention to this department, having had a vast ammount of practical experience.

A partial list of operations for the past year will be given in the following table:

OPERATIONS.	NO. OPER.	MALES.	FEMALES.	SUC.	UNSUC
Strabismus (cross eyes.)	28	9	19	28	.....

This embraces only a part of the successful surgical practice of the year.

I have done all in my power to relieve those so unfortunate to be afflicted, coming under my care.

My only desire is to be ever upright and honorable to all. I feel as though my past years labors have not been in vain.

Now, as my practice has assumed such proportions, I have called my father in as a co operator, and he will devote his whole attention to DISEASES OF WOMEN, ETC., while I will continue as usual.

THE DEMOCRAT.

EDITED AND PUBLISHED

By F. C. Thompson.

THURSDAY. NOV. 3, 1892.

THE Hogg fellows are trying the bluffing business in the way of offering bets. A short time ago they claimed the state by 100,000 majority, now they only claim 20,000. A short time ago they claimed 1800 majority in Collin county. Now they claim only 500. How the "mighty" have fallen!

The studiously circulated reports by the Hogg managers regarding Judge Nugent withdrawing from the race, is a political trick that is receiving no encouragement. The "club" met again in "secret caucus" last Monday night we presume to manufacture some more startling "reports." Bring them out gentlemen, no one believes your campaign "thunder."

It is said that the Hogg managers are going to put the independent candidates on the witness stand this week and demand that they tell whether they are in sympathy with the people's party or not. The prosecuting attorney will in all probability, be our staunch friend J. H. Bingham of the Enquirer (a so called newspaper.) It would be well for this gentleman to call before him his candidate for sheriff who belonged to a greenback club in 1876 or thereabouts. Of course this statement will be denied as usual, but we respectfully refer to dozens of substantial citizens around Wylie to prove this. Understand, however, that we have no objection to the ex-greenbackers only when they question the political motives of others and stand themselves as political puritans.

TO THE VOTERS, once for all, let this warning stay with you night and day! Your greatest danger of all dangers of loosing your most sacred of all rights, is in the perversion of the ballot and the falsifying of returns. Keep a vigilant eye ever on the ballot box until every ballot is correctly read and fairly counted and the correct result announced.

OUR friend, of the Enquirer, (a so-called newspaper) claims that the independent candidate for sheriff had been in the saloon business, but denies that his own candidate had ever been engaged in the business. It seems that "Uncle John" will never get right. He should investigate and find out who has been controlling a certain saloon in Plano, the firm name of which has very recently lost the "Co." part. Uncle John, go and read the Sunday law. "Ta, ta, old boy."

Some time since Hogg and his fuglemen said the laboring people had no cause to complain and told them to leave the country, and heaped high their abuse, and hired editors to break up the alliance calling us anarchists, skunks and a hundred such names. But now "presto change," they appeal to us to save them from impending doom by coming to their aid in this, the winter of their disconsolation, and now we are "democrats gone astray" and we seem to smell as sweet as roses! Oh, you hypocrits! you shall have your part in the cold bank of ballots that shall fall upon you in November. The earnest workers of this hive have not forgotten their manhood nor their sense of prosperity, and they are preparing to call upon the drones for a reckoning.

What is straight democracy in Texas? He who votes for Hogg scratches out two of the most important planks in the national democratic platform and scratches in several planks antagonistic to that eastern commercial document,

He who votes for Clark, scratches the nominal head of the old Bourbon machine in Texas. Now where is straight democracy in Texas?

Hogg says Nugent is a better man than Clark!

Clark says Nugent is a better man than Hogg! These are the highest authorities on this question. Therefore, by the strongest rules of evidence and by established fact and demonstration the people turn to Judge Nugent for statesmenship "pure and undefiled."

People's Party

CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.

JUDGE NUGENT AT MCKINNEY.

An Immense Audience Hears The Peerless Statesman.

On. Oct., 31, at 1 o'clock p. m. Heard's opera house, with every isle, was packed to hear the gentlemen, jurist, patriot and statesmen, Judge T. L. Nugent, of Fort worth. Hundreds could not find admission.

Col. Johnson appeared and stated that Nugent was the first man in Texas to oppose the giving of lands to corporations in Texas. Throckmorton was first to favor regulating freights on railroads. He then asked the audience how these men could be read out of democracy.

Col. Johnson presented Judge Nugent, our next governor.

Judge Nugent referred to the Hogg organs, who are slandering him and Judge Clark by asserting there was a corrupt trade between them. This he denounced as a vile falsehood in every respect and assured his audience he was in the fight to stay.

He showed that modern democracy was unlike the democracy of our fathers; indeed it was not democracy at all, but an excrescence of the war, a mere outgrowth of New York politics and Wall street finances.

The old democracy favored free seas and progressive free trade and a national currency, and opposed high trriff, national banks and lending public money to banks and other corporations.

Modern democracy opposes free trade, free silver and national currency and favors protection, national banks and other corporations and favors contraction rather than inflation.

He said that if Clark's friends wished to defeat Hogg their only hope was in voting for Nugent, and if Hogg's friends wished to defeat Clark then they should vote for Nugent.

Clark is the only candidate in Texas that stands on the national democratic platform. Hogg's platform is in utter defiance of the national platform. By stealing the income and free silver planks from the people's party national platform Hogg hopes thereby to steal people's party votes, but he will fail.

Modern democrats favor a billion dollar navy in order to protect and fatten the great steel industries. They favor the one million steel of the Nicarogua canal company. Their platform is a juggle with words so as to show, in one part of the country, they are in favor of low tariff and free silver and free currency and, so as to show in the other part, they are in favor of protective tariff, national banks and against all inflation of the currency.

These modern democrats offer two remedies: "Tariff for revenue only" and "Wild-cat state bank currency." All of our old citizens remember how this state bank currency ruined the working people in 1859, and how it fattened the bankers and brokers.

Wall street knifed Hill for favoring free silver and spent its money for Cleveland's nomination because he opposed free silver.

True democrats hate national and state banks and high protection. They favor a currency issued direct to the people without the intervention of corporations and they favor low tariff. In 1886 Mr. Mills said our circulation in 1850 increased 33 per cent annually until it was doubled and great prosperity followed, this was during low tariff. Secretary McCulloch in 1866 said "we now have nearly two billion in circulation, $60 per capita, and the greatest prosperity abounds everywhere. This was under high tariff. Showing by demonstration as well as by all highest authorities that the volume of circulating currency is the key to the whole solution of the question of national prosperity.

When wealth is increased and fairly distributed the people are happy, but when wealth is concentrated in the hands of the few the people suffer.

Hogg was elected on a platform calling for a uniform system of school books, alien land law and railroad commission law. He assured power, legislative, judicial and executive, and had all these laws passed to suit his own peculiar views: Yet all these laws today stand nullified and his administration a flat, expensive failure all because he, Caesar like, assumes power not delegated to him. His is the only case in the history of Texas where every principal act of the administration has been nullified.

Hogg also sits on the constitutionality of the McKinley bill and refuses to allow the state to have $88,000 due on the state's sugar farm as a bounty. This, too, in the face of the fact that our democratic fathers did not condemn the ancient fish bounty.

The great question to-day is money and its flexibility and supply. High authority, even among our enemies. Admit that our sub-treasury plan is a step in the right direction. This system, in the future, will be less abused and better understood.

Judge Nugent is in the middle of the road; he stands squarely on the people's platform; he has burned the bridges behind him and will be in this fight to the finish.

With the exception of one sputtering voice, which tried to kindle partison rancor, the judge received the best attention possible. His voice and strength is much exhausted by the campaign, yet every one strained the ear to catch the clear and patriotic thoughts of the great man.

The industrial classes of all orders and nationalities were represented in his great audience and gave back a kind and loyal response to the grandnuer of this great man's humanity.

A prominent candidate of the opposition was heard to say that on next Saturday night a "scheme" will be worked that will help the Hogg ticket. Gentlemen you will need a great many "schemes" to carry your points. The people are wide awake.

The Judgeship.

In answer to Uncle Mike's question in regard to our independent candidate for county judge, we are authorized to state that if he is elected he will depend upon the legitimate fees of the office for his compensation. We of our own accord take pleasure in supplementing the above answer by telling Uncle Mike, and for the matter of that, all others, who like him, want to vote intelligently in that race that the independent candidate is not by any means an $1800 cut. He believes that the compensation of the county judge is provided by law in fees and that the idea of converting it into a salaried office originated in the fertile brain of the present incumbent. That when you vote for him you vote for a man who was born and raised in Collin county and has the interests and welfare of his county and his fellow citizens at heart. That he will give you a clean, honest and economical administration of the county affairs. We know him intimately and can say without qualification or reserve that he is a man of integrity and fine business qualifications. We further believe that, if he is elected there will be no machine to control him, nor will there be pets to be favored by him, and further, Uncle Mike, when you vote for him you vote against third termism and all of its resulting evils.

MORE ABOUT WEAVER.

A Daughter of the Confederacy Defends Him.

Sunset, Tex., Oct. 20, 1892.

Mr. Editor:—Seeing an article in the Wolf City Sun, a paper issued at Wolfe City, Hunt county, Texas, entitled "More Proof on Weaver," and on reading over the names of the witnesses my eye recognized some old acquaintances. I am the daughter of a Confederate soldier who, among others, was induced to volunteer in the Confederate army under the solemn promise of such men as J. B. Stacy, Col. S. E. Rose, Dr. Batt, Dr. Roberts, Mr. Thomas Martin, all of Pulaski, Tenn. All including the writer was living in Pulaski in the winter of 1863 4.

These men mentioned above promised these soldiers if they would leave their families to their care and enlist they would see that the families should want for nothing while they were fighting at the front. The men went with the firm conviction that their wives and little ones would be looked after and kept from the blasts of the coming winter, fed and warmed by the foregoing rich men that had so solemnly promised to care for them—but how did they fulfill that promise? I recollect one cold winter day having little or nothing in the house to eat and no fire, we sent my brother to Mr. S. E. Rose for some wood and he very generously sent back word for us to buy it, and what happened to our family happened to all, for they all refused to help us in any way. My mother was on her death bed with a disease, augmented by want, fast taking her to the grave. Time and time again did we apply for relief, especially to Solon Rose and Thomas Martin but was always turned away with some insulting remark—until there came a lady to see us who was the wife of a Federal Surgeon. She obtained from me the history of our case and by her husband, Gen. Weaver was informed of all the facts. He had wood hauled to our door and provisions sent to us. A doctor was sent frm the 111th Indiana to attend my mother, and there were hundreds of families besides whose husbands were in the Confederate army supplied by Gen. Weaver with rations and fuel. If he made Martin and Rose and others shell out and keep their faith with the men who were at the front fighting their battles for them, he should receive the plaudits of the whole world instead of being censured. For my part I shall never forget to pray for Gen. Weaver, for he not only saved my life, but the lives of hundreds of other families of Confederate soldiers who such men as Ross, Martin, Batt and Stacy left to the tender mercy of the Federals.

I see Dave Cox's name as reference. Dave Cox was consi ered a bushwhacker in 18 J. M. Morris is well known me, He was living on Elk ri er in Ala. in '63 and was t young to know anything abo Gen. Weaver.

Lest this should meet the e of some of the gentlemen me tioned above and they shou fail to recognize me, I sign m maiden name.

CALLIE P. WADE.

Daughter of B. W. Wade, w known in Pulaski as a sho maker, werking before enterin the army for Wash McGre Tanner.—Sunset Signal.

R. W. Coleman.

Last Saturday at 1:50 p. m the news flashed over the wire from San Antonio announcing the death of R. W. Coleman a that city. Our lamented brot er was born in Mississip about thirty years ago. He ha spent his young manhood in advocacy of the new politica questions which are agitating the minds of the American peo ple to-day. Only a short time ago his eloquent voice was heard in Collin county and all who became acquainted with him, admired and loved him. He sent appointments to return and speak throughout Collin but just on the eve of said appointment, the news came to the DEMOCRAT office that he had taken dangerously sick with typhoid feyer. From this he never recovered. The big-hearted, brainy, affable Coleman has passed to the mysterious beyond, leaving behind a host of the saddest hearts all over this nation. Just in the rosy morn of life, when the enchanting breeze of worthy ambition was moving every branch, while the birds were caroling their sweetest greetings from every bough, the withering hand of death strikes this noble young man. The name of R. W. Coleman will live forever in the hearts and minds of the thousands who know him.

R. H. Durkee has received about 400 bushels of fine apples which he is selling at very low figures. It can be found near the depot where he is at wholesale or retail.

GEN. WEAVER'S ENEMIES.

A Much Abused Man. The Campaign Liar is Nailed to the Cross.

The following letter has been handed to the DEMOCRAT for publication:

CASH POINT, TENN.,
October 28, 1892.

T. W. Franklin, McKinney, Texas.—Dear Sir—I will comply with your request, regarding Gen. J. B. Weaver, while he was commander of the post at Pulaski, Tenn., in the winter of 1863-4. Also his recent visit to that town, on the 8th inst. I will say, first, that I was not there myself, but will vouch for the truth of what I say. I have it from reliable authority, that cannot be disputed—from those who were present, met and shook hands with Gen. Weaver at the depot, and was in the procession. He did go upon the public square and around the court-house and at one time he had to stop, owing to the great rush of the people to shake hands with their gallant leader. The line of march extended back to the fair grounds, where Gen. Weaver and Mrs. Lease addressed between two and three thousand people. He met and branded the campaign reports as false, first, last and all the time (see Gen. Weaver's Pulaski speech in Toiler) every charge brought against him by his enemies, except the $2,000 levy he was ordered to make by Gen. Dodge, his superior, he had no discression, he had to do it whether it met his approval or not; he was subordinate and had he refused he would have been subject to court martial and as to that permit granted to that old negro by the name of Leatherwood to make brandy or whisky, is another one of their falsehoods manufactured out of whole cloth for campaign purposes. When I say it is false I mean what I say and know what I am talking about, for I was at home at that time and the old Leatherwood negro lived in a mile and a half of me and I know that is false first, last and all the time, from alpha to omega. Further, when Gen. Weaver landed at the depot he was met by citizens of that town with a hearty welcome and handshake, by those whom they claimed had made certificates about Gen. Weaver's cruel and tyrannical treatment while stationed there and they told him that they knew nothing of those certificates, that they were forgeries. You can say that Gen. Weaver went to the hotel in Pulaski and ate his dinner, regardless of what may be said, to the contrary, notwithstanding. I will close.

W. A. FRANKLIN.

STONG WITNESSES.

Among the thousands of testimonials of cures by Dr, Miles' New Heart Cure, is that of Nathan Allisons, a well known citizen of Glen Rock, Pa., who for years had shortness of breath, sleeplessness, pain in left side, shoulders, smothering spells, etc.; one bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and one box of Nerve and Liver Pills, cured him. Peter Jaquet, Salem, N. J., is another witness, who for twenty years suffered with Heart Disease, was pronounced incurable by physicians, death stared him in the face, could not lie down for fear of smothering to death. Immediately after using the New Cure he felt better and could lie down and sleep all night, and is now a well man. The New Cure is sold, also Free Book, by Smith Bros. 2.

For bargains in groceries, Goostree & Foster is the place to go. They never fail to please.

☞The Waterloo is all right.

Judge Nugent is receiving grand ovations at every point he speaks.

A man has a right to choose his political faith, but he should be able at all times to to give a sensible reason therefor.

The colored people are not disposed to be pulled from their convictions. It is to be hoped that they will continue to resist undue influences.

Two of the democratic county candidates announced recently at Plano in favor of governor and denied it at Copeville. It seems to be a fact that they do not know which one of the boys they are.

It is now conceeded that every peoples party candidate will be elected in the county.

LOST.—A torchlight procession some two years ago. The Hogg gentlemen will please look it up.

The Hogg committee of the county bled the county ticket to the tune of $400 or $500, ostensibly for "legitimate" campaign purposes. Will anybody tell what has been done with the money? If it had been used legitimately somebody would have seen evidence of such "legitimate" use. But nothing of the sort has been observed by anybody. The general opinion is that it is held in reserve for some corrupt purpose to be made manifest in some dark way at the last hour. Let honest people keep up a skined eye.

The Dodging "Orator."

When J. C. Rhodes filled the appointment of R. W. Coleman at Weston the Hon. J. W. Bailey was advertised to meet him there. The young congressman was reported as being sick, consequently did not show up. But afterwards made appointments throughout Collin. Mr. Rhodes met him at Anna Saturday night last and asked for a division of time but was refused and was treated very discourteously by Mr. Bailey's ardent admirers. In view of these facts we take pleasure in presenting to the public a letter just received from R. V. Bell, opponent of Mr. Bailey. The said letter reads as follows:

Editor Democrat,

Dear Sir: Yours to hand today. Bailey never let me know of his appointments in Collin. When we made dates in Denton I asked him to make them in Collin and he refused. When we closed out in Denton I again asked him where he was going and told him I had made some appointments in Montague, provided it suited him. He replied he could not get to them, that he had promised to go to Collin and meet Coleman injoint debate at Coleman's appointments but agreed to meet me at McKinney on the 2nd. setting the time for himself. In fact I insisted that we meet on Saturday last but he insisted on the 2nd and we so agreed and have never changed the date. When I came home from Montague Friday night last I learned Saturday morning that he had telegraphed here that he would speak in McKinney Saturday. I could not then reach there and telegraphed him to that effect and that I would expect to meet him on the 2nd as we agreed.

Yours truely,
R. V. BELL.

The Wylie Rustler claimed that Bailey had won several votes from the people's party. Our young friend of the quill was offered $5 by a prominent citizen of Wylie to show up one man who had changed. He could not do it. So much for such newspaper reports.

Our Hogg friends have declared that nothing but "secret working" will save them now. They have quit their loud boasting and will now engage in the above mode of political warfare.

A PLAIN TALK.

On a Plain Subject in Plain Language.

A winter is just before us with all of its biting winds, cold, drizzling rains, sloppy, muddy streets, and sudden changes of temperature. This will cause at least one half of the people to have catarrh, colds, coughs, pneumonia, or consumption. Thousands of people will lose their lives and tens of thousands will acquire some chronic ailment from which they will never recover. Unless you take the necessary precautions the chances are that you (who read this) will be one of the unfortunate ones. Little or no risk need be run if Pe-ru-na is kept in the house and at the appearance of any symptom take it as directed on label. No one who values his welfare should be without a copy of The Family Physician No. 2, a complete guide to the treatment and prevention of all climatic diseases of winter. Sent free by the Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

J. R. Gough, democratic nominee, and J. T. Branch, people's party nominee for representative will speak at the following times and places:

NEWSPAPERS ENDORSE.

"Educators are certainly the greatest benefactors of the race, and after reading Dr. Franklin Miles' popular works, cannot help declaring him to be among the most entertaining and educating authors."—New York Daily. He is not a stranger to our readers, as his advertisements appear in our columns in every issue, calling attention to the fact that his elegant work on Nervous and Heart Diseases is distributed free by our enterprieing druggists Smith Bros. drug store. Trial bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine are given away, also Book of Testimonials showing that it is unequalled for Nervous Prostration, Headache, Poor Memory, Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Neuralgia, Hysteria, Fits, Epilepsy. 2.

We understand that there will be all kinds of tickets circulated among the voters next Tuesday, many of which are frauds and calculated to deceive the ignorant or carless voter Among them will be one headed republican ticket which containes only the republican electors and the balance is filled out with Hogg nominees for state and county officers. Another ticket will be headed people's party ticket and will contain the nominees of that party but will have inserted the Hogg nominees for county officers instead of the independent candidates. These tickets are printed by our Hogg friends without the consent and over the protest of the republicans and people's party and will be circulated by the Hogg rulers in an attempt to catch the unwary voter. Look out for these frauds, do not allow yourself to be deceived by a fraudulent heading. See that the names of every candidate you wish to vote for is on the ticket before you put it in the ballot box.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Victory at Wylie. Frank Skelton, the Champion.

Wylie, Tex., Oct., 31, 1892.
Editor Democrat,

We had some fun here last Saturday night, and our boys still wear a broad smile of satisfaction.

The way F. P. Skelton, a farmer, and at present cotton weigher here, did up Mr. Mangum, of your city, who is a candidate for county attorney of this county is a "caution." Mr. Skelton had promised our club that he would give us a talk on that night and extended the oposite party an opportunity to trot out some of their fine stock to meet him. Well the results were that they got Mr. Mangum to come down and "do" our Frank as they said, but in the minds of the reasonable the doer got done.

Mr. Skelton opened with about an hour's talk, in which he used no abuse whatever. He stated on taking the stand he only proposed to discuss some two or three points or issues and confined himself to the income tax and the finance.

Mr. Mangum in reply stated that we already had an income tax but before the speaking closed I judge Mr. Mangum wished he had never made the break, for the way Mr. Skelton did book him on that. Mr. S. wanted to know of him that if we already had such a law as the income tax why the Hogg people wanted another? Mr. Mangum either thought he was speaking to a very unintelligent audience or had little regard for what he said, for in reading from the platform of the democrats he attempted to show that their platform was in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver, by not reading the entire plank on that question but Frank scored him on that.

In reading from the record he stated that which no well read man will or has ever denied that the republicans were responsible for the present national banking system but stopped too soon for had he have gone on a little further he would have found that this same old "dimokrodick" party is responsible for their perpetuity, for this same G. O. P. chartered them. Why did not you give it all to us Bro. M. But I suppse you were on showing the bright side. Let me say to you Mr. M. when you come again, which I hope you may soon, please don't try to give us so much "guff" or we will put our Frank after you again.

Now Mr. Editor I could go on and on but that will tire your readers and take up too much valuable space. I only want to let the brothers over this county know that we are "in it" just a little at least. We are standing firm to a man, the Hon. Joe Bailey having been here, notwithstanding. I understood that it was said by some of the democrats after Bailey was here that we had lost heavily, but don't you believe it as we will pay liberally for every one of our men they bring up and have him admit that he has done with our cause. Now Mr. Editor if there are any more of their fast stock up there trot one out and we'll put Frank after him and you will know the consequences.

CALAMITY HOWLER.

Mr. Moore, the postmaster at Bradshaw, Va., after reeding an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy, concluded to try a small bottle of it. He says: "I used it in two cases of colic and three for diarahœa with perfect satisfaction. I have handled and used a great deal of patent medicine but never tried any that gave as good results at this." For sale by R. E. Bristol, Druggist,

The business men of McKinney have our heart felt thanks for the liberal patronage they have given the DEMOCRAT. We wish for them prosperity.

We have plenty of election tickets printed and we hope that our friends will see that some one from each voting box will be here by Saturday to deliver them to their destination.

The "pin feather" brigade seems to be getting a little pale.

It is thought that the Hogg gentlemen will scratch Cleveland because his excellency has not announced in favor of Hogg.

The Salt river Packet company is preparing for an excursion next Tuesday. The late rains have put the stream in a favorable condition.

It is thought that our christian friend, the editor of the Enquirer, (a so-called newspaper) will deliver a series of lectures on the Sunday law after the election.

A letter has been received from Rhea's Mill announcing that Todd Warden's enemies are charging him with being a "sot drunkard." The gentleman who makes such an unreasonable charge must be a little "tipsy" himself.

THE BEST PLASTER.—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cents a bottle. For sale by R. E. Bristol, Druggist.

Most Desperate!

During a democratic rally at Commanche, which was addressed by Senator Coke, a lot of hoodlums attacked a printing office of Thomas Gaine's a people's party leader. They throwed rocks through the windows and did considerable damage. The family of Mr. Gaines was forced away from home through fear, he not being at home. This seems to be an attempt to carry out Coke's declaration that those who do not vote the Hogg ticket ought to die. The governor has offered a small reward of $200 for the arrest of the miscreants.

The Hoggocrats were so badly scared yesterday that they sent a fellow to the DEMOCRAT to learn if we were issuing campaign circulars. Said fellow asked if we were not doing some printing for the Clark managers. We gently informed him that we were getting out the best paper in the county—nothing more.

A certain cure for Chronic Sore Eyes, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Old Chronic Sores, Fever Sores, Eczema, Itch, Prairie Scratches, Sore Nipples and Piles. It is cooling and soothing. Hundreds of cases have been cured by it after all other treatment had failed. It is put up in 25 and 50 cent boxes.

The Dallas News reports that the printing office of Thos. Gains, a peoples party advocate was raided by a lot of mad Hogg men. This is another sample of desperate bulldozing.

Hon. Seth Sheppard of Dallas spoke to a good crowd at at the court house last night in favor of George Clark.

Are your children subject to croup? If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is a certain cure for croup, and has never been known to fail. If given freely as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is the sole reliance with thousands of mothers who have croupy children, and never disappoints them. There is no danger in giving this remedy in large and frequent doses, as it contains nothing injurious. 50 cent bottles for sale by R. E. Bristol, Druggist.

LOCAL NEWS.

Watch the ballot box.

Go to the polls and vote early.

What about the "third term" business?

"Yaller" dog, brass collar politics gets a black eye this time. The sovereign citizen is coming to the surface.

Who used to say that third termism was undemocratic? Ask Peter I Davis and even our clever jailor.

The ticket of the people's party is a clean one and deserves the undivided support of the party.

The headquarters of the Hogg democracy is now snugly located in the Enquirer office. The moral atmosphere pervading this sanctum is refreshing to the average Hogg man.

The Hogg managers are preparing to scatter all kinds of reports just on the eve of the election too late to be answered. Pay no attention to any reports.

Dr. Grant, republican nominee for congress, and others addressed a large audience at the court house last Saturday night.

J. W. Bailey spoke to a good crowd at the court house last Saturday. He spoke at Anna Saturday night and refused to divide time with Mr. Rhodes, of Greenville.

The Hogg club met at the court-house last Monday night and re-elected the governor. It's all over with now (?)

D. A. Russell of Denton county and John Kimbrough will engage in a political discussion at Rock Hill next Saturday night, the former in favor of the people's party and the latter against. Everybody invited.

Dr. T. C. Reedy, of Bonham, will be at the City hotel on Monday and Tuesday, the 14th and 15th of November.

The Enquirer will hardly continue the cry about "Cuney and the coons." It has just leaked out that a certain Hogg man tried to organize a colored Hogg club in a certain church recently in McKinney.

We hear Hogg people talking in tearful tones about saving the county ticket and yet they are freely offering to trade their county treasurer for sheriff. That is saving the county ticket with a vengence, isn't it?

Capt. Bingham says that we are in favor of the "third party" for the money there is in it. Of course the captain is working for glory (!) but we do think that there are a host of officials and deputies hanging around the court house who cling to Hogg's coat tail "for the money there is in it."

The Enquirer is improving. Its genial christian editor has laid the scissors aside and resorted to the quill business. The DEMOCRAT will likely receive congratulation from the readers of the Exquirer for its work in this line.

Only one more week and then Capt. Bingham can take a two year's lay off. The scissors will then perform the duties of the editorial department of our religious contemporary.

Rev. A. M. Simms, of the Baptist chuach, gives a special invitation to the non church going friends to attend his service next Sabbath night, old men and young men and wives and daughters.

Judge Nugent addressed one of the largest political audiences ever gathered in Sherman last Tuesday night. He was cheered to the echo.

The Hogg organs of this county assert that there is a corrupt deal between Clark and Nugent as to governor and U. S. senatorship. Judge Nugent denounces this as another campaign falsehood. These administrationists are surely wallowing in a deep mire and their auricular and caudal appendages are getting many a twist.

Lifelong democrats everywhere say they will not only scratch the ticket this time but they intend to mix it and stir it well before they take it.

County officials, the least of all, should not lend themselves to undignified speech or act, even in private relations, but when a county judge, in a public speech, is asked a civil question and replies by flapping his arms and crowing in imitation of a rooster and declaring he is determined to "get there" with all four of his feet, one is tempted to ask what kind of bird or brute it is that has such asinine proportions.

How Things Do Change, All For the Want "of a Little Sense."

The republicans of Collin county have ranged themselves solidly on the side of decency, respectability and good political morals in the people's fight in this county against communism, hypocrisy, slander, malice and discord. Long may they be remembered for it.—McKinney Enquirer, Nov. 8, 1884.

The procession leaving here was n motly one indeed, in its ranks were those of every political complexion, from the straight-out republican down to the fellow who does not know who he is until the polls are opened.—Enquirer, Oct. 29, 1892.

Take Notice.

Eld. A. P. Terrell of Kearney, Mo., will begin a protracted meeting at the Christian church in this city Friday night, Nov. 4. The citizens of McKinney, and also of the country, as far as they can possibly do so, are cordially invited to attend this meeting. We expect a good number of preachers to be in attendance from time to time, as J. J. Lockhart of Greenville, U. M. Browder, of Gainesville; J. W. Marshall, of Farmersville; J. B. Faulkner, of Wylie; L. B. Grogan, of Plano; R. C. Horn, of Vineland, and others. Let all note time, and attend.

D. W. PRICHETT.

The people's party has all advantage over the opposition. It is a new party with phenomenal growth. Even a defeat will not be discouraging. It is a distinct national party and has come to stay. Already victory is certain in several states. Let every patriot march bravely to the front. The walls of plutocracy and prejudice cannot stand much longer.

In their public speeches the Hogg leaders affect to fight the people's party platform. Then they sneak into every community and whisper that Hogg is advocating the people's party principles and try to get Nugent's following to desert him. Gentlemen such methods will not work. The people's party propose to stand by their chief who is honest and pure.

The Hogg people are certainly getting desperate on the eve of their defeat. They are now circulating a report all through the rural districts that Nugent is going to withdraw and are appealing to the Nugent voters to come over to Hogg as the only way to defeat Clark. We here nail said report to the wall as a lie without foundation or justification and it only shows the unscrupulous methods resorted to by the Hogg sattelites in this their hour of great tribulation. We are here to tell you that Nugent is in the race to stay till the last vote is counted.

That lop-sided expose of the "Sunday law" petition business is growing inconvenient to the "holier than thou" crowd. Mr. Gough, at Melissa, denied having anything to do with the business and claimed he should not be blamed with it. The friends of Mr. Greer would be glad to know what part he played in this one-eyed business and, while he is explaining, he might tell what part he played in that gin trust business organized in the north part of the county.

S. P. Clardy,	County Surveyor.

South Carolina to the Front.

The people's party of South Carolina met at Columbia on the 19th and nominated candidates for Presidential electors as follows.

J. L. Keith, J. W. Bowden, at large.
P. J. Rawl, First.
W. H. Duncan, Second.
W. A. Hamilton, Third.
R. B. Lyon, Fourth.
W. W. McElwee, Fifth.
J. J. Lane, Sixth.
B. H. Taylor, Seventh.

A ringing address was issued.

It particularly arraigns the Democratic house for its treatment of the silver bill, and asserts that Grover Cleveland represents Wall street and monopoly, while Weaver and Field represent the farmer and the laborer. The address ends:

"Citizens, farmers, laborers, brethren, ye who live by the sweat of honest toil, think well cast your ballots, freightd with the destinies of generations yet unborn, for the man of your choice. Let the politicians and the plutocratic press rave, but carefully consider the question and vote for the ticket which best represents your interests. This is due to your God, your country, your children."

Nugent at Marshall.

MARSHALL, Tex., Oct. 29.—Judge Nugent, people's party candidate for governor, spoke to a good sized crowd this afternoon. His speech covered issues discussed at other points His points were enthusiastically received. He made a good impression.

The courteous christian gentleman of the Enquirer now says that he and his friends made a few mistakes in issuing the "Sunday Law" campaign document. In other words he thought the public was comcomposed of fools. This mistake of Mr. Bingham was caused by the "lack of a little sense." "Ta, ta," old boy, we still have hopes of your complete "reformation."

A CALL TO DUTY! AN EARNEST AND FINAL APPEAL

Hypocrisy Must be Turned Aside Act As True Americans.

Editor Democrat,

Before another issue of the DEMOCRAT reaches its readers the great battle of bollots, which is to mark an epoch in our nation's history, will have been fought, and the number of patriots weighed in the ballance and not found wanting will be accertained. The final great test is at hand. Patriots and lovers of justice, do you fully appreciate the situation? Do you fully realize that you have a foe to contend against, utterly unscrupulous and with brains prolific in methods of political trickery.

The combined powers of oppression throughout christendom are centered against the American patriots of to-day, as they were against those of 1776.

You have declared publicly and privately, for months back that you would stand firmly against tyranny and for liberty and your home, but the eyes of civilization are turned upon you as they were upon that body of patriots gathered in the old State house in Philadelphia one July day, one hundred and sixteen years ago. From Massachusetts Bay to St. Mary's river the question was asked. Will they do it? Dare they do it? True they had fought like Spartans in defence of their homes at Lexington and Bunker's Hill. The enemy had been driven from Boston harbor and repulsed at Fort Moultrie. The strong hold of Ticondiroga had fallen an easy prey to noble old Ethan Allen, yet there was doubt that the continental congress posesed the moral and physical courage, to throw defiance in the face of the British king and declare complete and eternal independance.

So it is in the present case. The reform army has made a gallant fight all along the skirmish line and the enemy has been driven off the field in Kansas and South Dakota. while the silver fortresses of the Rocky Mountains have surrendered to our noble standard bearer without the firing of a single gun.

But the great question is now to be decided. Will you withstand the final and desperate charge of the plutocracy and take your stand firmly and immovable outside the old party fence? Will you burn the bridges behind you and forever turn your back upon organized hypocrisy? Do not hesitate through fear of failure, but like the heroes of '76 go on in the fight from battle to battle, determined to win in the end and victory will crown your efforts sooner or later. Sudden and speedy revolutions never establish permanent and satisfactory conditions.

Let every populist turn a deaf ear to the siren voice of the political slanderer, who will be abroad in numbers that are legion from now until the polls are closed on election day, to pour their slimy filth upon your leaders and candidates. Pay no attention to these vultures who would besmirch the character of an angel from heaven who dared to oppose their nefarious methods and then seek to pose as the champions of morality and christianity. Be heedless to the voice of the politician who would persuade you that his particular candidate is a good fellow and is in sympathy with reform principle, but is with the other fellows for policy. Turn the cold shoulder to the crowd who denounce you as a "motley crew," "skunks," "traitors," who ought not to live and anarchist folks who are "too big for their breeches," etc., and then steal your platform and then have the gall to ask you to vote with them because we advocate the same measures. Do not listen to the reported with-drawal of certain candidates on the peoples ticket for they are as false as the evil one himself.

Lose sight of men and cling to principles, remember your vote counts one for the right if you do not elect a man on your ticket. Stop not in the midst of the fight to inquire into the character of the comrade at your side, who is fighting manfully in your cause. If his life has been one of continuous wrong doing you know he is now in the right and as long as he is in the right you can afford to go with him.

In the name of manhood and honor, I say forget all petty differences but remember that one nonproducer owns more of the products of labor than two thousand producers. Forget the bloody struggle of thirty years ago, but remember that cotton is worth only one third as much as it was before the demonetization of silver. Forget that sectional hate has rankled in your bosoms for years, but remember that our forefathers fought our liberty with their blood and we should maintain it. Forget that you were a democrat or a republican, but remember that you are an American citizen. Forget the politician and office seeker, but remember your wife and children. Forget the teachings of pious hypocrits who would lend their aid to inslave humanity, but remember that Christ was a friend to the poor and was persecuted by this same class of religious hypocrites.

In short let us be faithful and vigilant and let it be demonstrated on the eighth of November that there is enough of the patriotism of 1776 left in America to resecue it from the money oligarchy.

E. C. FORBS.

A CARD.

A circular is being put in the hands of the voters of Collin county, purporting to be a petition of the citizens of Collin county, asking the repeal of all Sunday laws and addressed to the 22nd legislature of the State of Texas. As this document now appears, twenty six names of alleged signers are given, whilst I am informed the original petition contained about three hundred—and I am also informed that the original is in the possession of J. H. Bingham of the McKinney Enquirer—and that the circular above referred to emenates from his office.

My name appears in the list of signers among the 26 given to the public. But whether my signature to the original in Mr. Bingham's posession is genuine or not, I cannot say—my personal relations towards him having been for years of such a character as to preclude all intercourse between us, and consequently, I have had no opportunity to inspect what is claimed to be the original in his posession. I say this, because I have no recollection of ever seeing such a petition or of ever signing this or any one of this character. And I now solemnly assert and declare that I never did nor do not now entertain sentiments at all or in anyway in harmony with the petition referred to; and that I did not and would not upon deliberation sign such a petition. I further declare that if it be true that I signed said petition, it was done without a knowledge of its purport, and as hundreds of gratuitous petitions are signed every year to oblige friends, with no thought of perpetrating a wrong—As an instance of the habit prevailing as to this sort of thing I refer to our well known and highly esteemed fellow citicen, W. M. Bagley, whom I learned from his own mouth is one of the suppressed signers of this same petition, and who so incredulous, when informed he had signed it, that he took Dolyh Parker with him and inspected the original to find, not only that it was genuine, but that Parker was also a signer. The assertions of Mr. Bagley that he would not have signed such an instrument knowing its contents, will not be discredited in the face of his well known character for rectitude and moral worth. And so of many other signers equally good and reliable citizens, who disclaim all knowledge of having signed such a paper or of being in harmony with its purposes and declarations.

I hereby certify my willingness to make offidavit to the perfect truthfulness of every statement I have here made.

WOMAN!

WOMAN is a maryelous creature. In her we have the most complex, most perfect, most beautiful work of God.

Her nature is cast in a more perfect mould than man's. It contains a larger proportion of the finer elements that link the race to a higher and better destiny.

She embodies in the most perfect degree the graces of modesty, patience, gratitude and devotion. These attributes have won for her, under the benign spirit of the Gospel of Christ, that exalted social position for which her Creator intended her.

Perfect as in her moral nature, it is no more admirable than the physical structure that holds it.

This intricate piece of mechanism, so finely balanced, so graceful, so compact of texture, so perfect in every detail, excites our wonder and awakens our admiration more and more, as we become aware of its completeness.

The Almighty created woman for a high and holy mission. He implanted in her a separate system of organic life, and prescribed duties for her to perform. To perfect His design and better enable her to fulfill her sacred trust, He blended the nobler attributes of mind with perfection of form. These qualities were made sympathetic. The perfection of one depends on the others, the weakness of one affects them all, and an injury to one throws the entire machinery of her multiple nature out of its intended balance.

The original mental and physical harmony of woman has not been maintained. While she has developed intellectually, expanded socially and advanced morally, she has sadly degenerated physically.

Therefore we have prepared and put upon the market

If the old saying is true that "that country is best governed which is governed least," Texas was well governed last Saturday, for Superintendent of Instruction Carlisle was the only officer at the capitol on that day. All the rest were out on the canvass. It put us in mind of the fellow who, when the preacher spent the night with him found that he only had two leaves of a bible, excused ed himself by saying: "I had no idea I was so short of bible."—Jefferson Jimplecute.

We charge that the politicians are in league with the monopolists, and are running the old parties for their benefit. We say that these leaders, local and general, will be held by public opinion, from this time on, for a strict account for their doings. Their tricks have become too gauzy. They cannot make the people believe that shifting the load from one shoulder to the other removes the burden. The burden is still on the same back. Christening it by the same name is for deception only. It is an attempted fraud on the national intellect.—Optic.
